Jacob's Folly | Rebecca Miller

JACOB'S FOLLY is a great read. Author Rebecca Miller weaves the story of "Jacob" from his life as a Jewish man in Paris during the French Enlightenment through his re-incarnation as a fly in modern times.

Jacob's Folly by Rebecca Miller - Goodreads

Rebecca Miller is the daughter of playwright Arthur Miller and his last wife, Inge Morath. She is the wife of actor Daniel Day-Lewis - himself half-Jewish - and from what I've read, she was raised without much Jewish education or observance. However, in "Jacob's Folly", Miller is quite at home with Jewish history and religious practices.
