Edward remembers he must bring in a rock for science class, but what he finds is no ordinary rock. It is a "Fetch," and the purpose of the tiny organisms inside, called "foragers," is to steal time, just a second here and there. Because the Fetch is opened prematurely, the foragers multiply rapidly and begin stealing time in a frenzy.

The Time Fetch by Amy Herrick; read by Luci Christian ...

I liked the Time Fetch, though I didn't love it. It's about how these four friends discover a Time Fetch, a stone that sends out foragers to collect the time that is not missed or regretted. When the foragers are awakened, they begin to multiply and eat away at the time. Soon, buildings are crumbling to dust and disappearing.
